A letter from their Excellencies

Greetings unto the Populace,

We, Logan and Tyne, come to you with heartfelt gratitude for allowing us to serve this great Barony of Dreiburgen as your Baron and Baroness. We have met many new people, created many happy memories, and are forever changed. It is time to find new heirs to continue the great forward motion of this Barony. Being Baron and Baroness gives you an opportunity to see the SCA in a way that can only be explained by being there. We encourage you to write letters of Intent to Serve. Below is the list of recipients to send your letters.

Dreiburgen Summer Arts

On July 25th, Dreiburgen and Starkhafn kept the Dream alive by hosting the annual Dreiburgen Summer Arts Event and Collegium of the Desert exclusively from the ether. SCAdians from across the knowne world were able to attend an amazing day of learning and sharing of the various Arts and Sciences.

A fantastic display of artwork was presented by talented members of our Barony, and beyond. The day's festivities included a Kingdom Court and investiture of Gyldenholt's new Baron and Baroness, wonderful classes, and the Dreiburgen Arts and Sciences Championship. The Dreiburgen Arts and Sciences Championship had 4 categories and included a youth division.

Art entries for the event can be viewed online at the Barony of Dreiburgen website:
<https://dreiburgen.sca-caid.org/competition-entries/>

The Dreiburgen Arts and Sciences Youth Champion was Wyatt of Dreiburgen. Wyatt had the highest scores for the painting, Jewelry, and Wildcard categories. Michelle of Harris upon York from Artemisia won the Wildcard Category. The Dreiburgen Arts and Sciences Champion was Ramvoldus Kröll with the highest scoring entries in the Woodworking, Jewelry, and Painting categories.

Just because this was a virtual event does not mean that it took less work to put it all together. Producing a large online event has its own unique challenges. There was a lot of work behind the scenes, hard decisions, and last minute obstacles that were necessary to put this event together.

Thank you to all the judges, autocrats, and officers for this event:

Chronicler's Notes

Unto the Populace of Dreiburgen;

Our beloved Baron and Baroness have fostered the arts, ushered in new friends, and brought the lands of Dreiburgen out of myth and into legend! The search has begun for heirs. We honor and celebrate those who came before, and look forward to the bright future of our thriving, vast barony.

Yours in Glorious Service;

Ramvoldus Krössl
